Hello,

The YouTube Community flagged one or more of your videos as inappropriate. Flagged content is not automatically taken down by the flagging system. After review, the YouTube team has found that one or more of your videos violate our Community Guidelines. As a result, we have removed the content.

Accounts that have multiple or severe violations of our Community Guidelines may be suspended.

Please take some time to learn about YouTube's Community Guidelines and how they are enforced.

If you think a Community Guidelines strike was applied to your account in error, you can appeal it.

Hello,

We require that you identify the content at issue by its video URL. Search terms/results, video titles, or channel names are not sufficient means of identification.

Please provide the URL(s) for the video(s) and or channel(s) in question. Once we receive these URLs, we will investigate your complaint further and take action if necessary. Below are instructions on how to obtain a video URL:

1. Find the video in question on youtube.com
2. In the address bar at the top, you will see the video URL (examples: <http://youtube.com/watch?v=XXXXXXXXXX>
OR <http://youtube.com/user/XXXXXX>)
3. Copy the link and paste it into your email reply.
